THE BENEFITS OF KEEPSTOCK® LABEL

Re-order supplies easily. Get barcode labels for the products you stock. Attach them to the bins in your storage area and from then on identifying, organizing and checking your inventory is quick and easy. Create inventory lists to keep track of information about your frequently used Fabory inventory items. Create orders by simply reading the information on the barcode labels.

Minimize time spent. When your inventory is labeled with the correct article numbers this saves you having to look up article numbers in a catalogue when ordering replenishment.

WHAT ARE YOUR SAVINGS?

KeepStock Label will save you time and money in the following areas:

- Inventory management ➜ Quick insight in your stock levels because of a well-organized storage area.
- Order process ➜ Use your inventory list with the Fabory article numbers to create an order and reduce the number of incorrectly ordered items.

FABORY SUPPORT

Fabory will assist you with implementation of KeepStock Label. We'll supply the initial barcode labels and show you how to use them. On top of that, our webshop supports printing labels if articles are added or replaced. A quick call to our customer support team is also an option. In that case, we'll do the printing for you and send it out same day.
